“Odes to the Sycamore”

Friday, September 9, 2022 at 4-7pm
Runs through November 8, 2022

Pat Herman, award-winning local artist, will show watercolor and ink paintings at an upcoming one-woman show. The new series, "Odes to the Sycamore," is a tribute. The series springs from Pat's lifelong fascination with sycamores, more than 50 years of making art, and a year and a half of work, thus far. For her, it is all about the bark, amazing colors, patterns, and shapes. The show will open Friday, September 9, 4-7 pm at The Ellen Firme Gallery and will run through November 8.

Her work has received multiple awards in exhibitions at the Art Barn, the Midwest Museum of American Art in Elkhart, the Chesterton Arts Center, galleries in Fountain Hills, AZ, and has been juried into the Michiana Annual Art Competition at the Box Factory in St. Joseph, MI.

Pat has also exhibited her paintings at The Depot Gallery in Beverly Shores, SFC Gallery and Rising Phoenix in Michigan City, the Brauer Museum in Valparaiso, the Legacy Center at Queen of All Saints Parish, and other venues in Northern Indiana.

The Ellen Firme Gallery is open weekdays 9:30-5:00 pm and Saturdays 10:00-4:00 pm. It is closed on Sundays. The gallery is located at 92 U.S. 12, in Beverly Shores.
